Figure (a) shows the pH diagram for Zn$^{2+}$ activity ($\log a(\text{Zn}^{2+})$) as a function of pH. The diagram includes regions labeled as adamite and smithsonite. Figure (b) presents similar data with additional lines indicating the stability regions for kottilite, adamite, and smithsonite.